

Additional Specific Interventions

Examples of when pupils may have access to additional support:

- Pre teaching opportunities before the lesson has been taught so your child already has a head start!
- Small group sessions in and/or out of class
- One to one sessions
- Scripting/modelling behaviours
- Support with tasks when differentiation is not appropriate
- Preparation for change of lesson or activity
- Chunking instructions
- Support during unstructured times
- Revisiting concepts taught in class

Additional strategies or programmes to support Communication & Interaction including:

- Recommendations and programmes provided by Speech and Language
- A specific speech and language programme based on the results of Wellcomm Early Years or Wellcomm Primary
- Speaking & Listening groups such as LOLA
- In class co-operative learning groups
- Talk Partners
- Support from a number of specialized ELKLAN trained teaching assistants.

Additional strategies/programmes to support Cognition & Learning including:

- Reading Buddies
- Precision teaching
- Overlearning interventions
- Memory fix; working memory
- Phonics Counts
- Better Reading Partners
- Rapid Reading
- Rapid Maths
- Rapid Writing
- Additional guided group sessions

Additional strategies/programmes to support Social, Mental & Emotional Health including:

- Time to Talk
- ELSA (Emotional Literacy Support)
- Socially Speaking
- Yoga/ Mindfulness
- Additional transition support
- Social & emotional needs through circle of friends, art therapy, nurture work plus individualised care plans
- Play therapy in some circumstances
- Our nurture group
- Drawing and Talking

---

Additional strategies/programmes to support Sensory or Physical Needs including:

- Specific programmes designed by physiotherapists
- Specific programmes designed by occupational therapists
- Fine/Gross motor skill programmes
- Intervention through handwriting
- Specific equipment recommended by occupational therapists purchased through school budget
- Touch typing interventions to support children with fine motor difficulties
- Access to quiet place
- Snug Lunch